

EAGLE SCOUT CHARLES C. CAINES

Shown from L-R: Town of Newburgh Board of Assessment Review Member & Lieutenant Colonel Charles L. Caines, Eagle Scout Charles C. Caines, and Deputy Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley at the Stewart Air National Guard Base in the Town of Newburgh.

On Monday, August 11th, an Eagle Scout Court of Honor Ceremony was held in honor of Charles C. Caines at the 105th Airlift Wing, Stewart Air National Guard Base, located at 1 Maguire Way in the Town of Newburgh.

The Eagle Scout Award is scouting's highest honor. To achieve this rank, Eagle Scout Charles Caines served as a member of Boy Scout Troop 327, earned numerous merit badges, and built a Reflection Bench at the American Legion Post 1420 for his Eagle Scout Service Project.

On behalf of the Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and the Town Board, Deputy Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley presented a Certificate of Achievement to Eagle Scout Charles Caines for his outstanding achievement in the presence of his family, friends, and supporters. Charles also received a Certificate of Recognition from Congressman Pat Ryan's Office. His hard work, dedication, and commitment are commendable.

Congratulations Charles for achieving scouting's highest honor.

#

#

#