

SAXON HALL'S AXES & ALES OPENS IN THE TOWN OF NEWBURGH

Shown from L-R: Saxon Hall's Axes & Ales Owners Joby and Jossy Phillips, Councilman Paul Ruggiero, Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio, Deputy Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley, and Councilman Anthony LoBiondo.

On February 8, 2022, Saxon Hall's Axes & Ales held its' Grand Opening Event. Located at 1400 Union Avenue in the Town of Newburgh, Saxon Hall is a world class axe throwing venue. You can enjoy fun games such as pool, pin ball, video games, and other activities while visiting Saxon Hall's Axes & Ales. Also, you can host corporate/private parties and events at this venue, and you have the option to use one of the 10 projected target lanes for axe throwing. In addition, onsite instructors are available to guide you during your axe throwing experience. Safety protocols are in place to ensure that everyone plays in a safe environment.

Saxon Hall Owners Joby and Jossy Phillips wanted to create something original, provide employment, and give back to the community; and axe throwing at Saxon Hall's Axes & Ales provides that. Patrons must be 21 years old to drink alcoholic beverages and 18 years old to participate in axe throwing.

During Saxon Hall's Axes & Ales Grand Opening Event, Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio, Deputy Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley, Councilman Paul Ruggiero, and Councilman Anthony LoBiondo were in attendance.

Supervisor Piaquadio welcomed Saxon Hall's Axes & Ales to the Town, thanked them for bringing new business to the Town of Newburgh, and wished them success in their endeavors.

# #