

THE 100-FOOD JOURNEY GRAND OPENING EVENT

Deputy Town Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley (center) presents a Certificate to Co-owners Glaxon Geevarghese (left), Thomas Varghese, and Lijo John (right) to welcome The 100-Food Journey to the Town of Newburgh as Town Councilman Anthony LoBiondo looks on.

People cheered as the ribbon is cut at The 100-Food Journey Grand Opening event at 34 Plank Road in the Town of Newburgh.

On June 24th, a Grand Opening event was held for The 100-Food Journey – A Tale of Indian Cuisine at 34 Plank Road in the Town of Newburgh. Delicious, authentic Indian food is served on a rotating cycle where the menu is changed every 100 days. This rotating menu of Indian cuisine provides a shared journey to all who partake at The 100-Food Journey. Tarun Arora is the Executive Chef that brings this diverse and intriguing menu to life and peaks the interest of every palate that embarks on the food journey at The 100-Food Journey.

During the Grand Opening event, Deputy Town Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley presented a Certificate to welcome The 100-Food Journey to the Town of Newburgh on behalf of the Town Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and the Town of Newburgh Town Board. The 100-Food Journey Co-owners Thomas Varghese, Glaxon Geevarghese, Lijo John graciously accepted the Certificate. Musicians including drummers and a band performed throughout this festive occasion. Town Councilman Paul Ruggiero, Town Councilman Anthony LoBiondo, and members of the Orange County Chamber of Commerce were also in attendance to celebrate the opening of The 100-Food Journey in the Town of Newburgh.

Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and the Town of Newburgh Town Board thanks The 100-Food Journey for choosing the Town of Newburgh as their place of business and wishes them success in their endeavors.